8	Erection: In case the buyer prefers to assemble the cans at their end, they may do so independently. However, if on-site assistance is required, Sabar can depute a qualified technician for assembling. In such a case, all related expenses – including visa fees, round-trip airfare, local transportation, and accommodation (either provided free of charge or reimbursed at actuals) – shall be borne by the buyer. Additionally, a daily pocket allowance of USD 50 per day, including travel days, will be applicable.
9	Warranty Period: SABAR warrants that the Spinning cans and related accessories manufactured by it are free from defects in material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of shipment. In the event of any defect covered under this warranty, the product must be returned to SABAR's factory with transportation charges prepaid. Upon inspection, SABAR will, at its sole discretion, repair or replace the defective item and return it to the purchaser ex-SABAR factory. This warranty does not apply to products that have been misused, mishandled, improperly installed, repaired by unauthorized persons, altered, or damaged due to external causes. This warranty is in lieu of all other warranties, expressed or implied. Under no circumstances shall SABAR be liable for special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages, including but not limited to claims arising from contract termination or production loss. SABAR reserves the right to extend or reduce the warranty period, if specifically agreed in writing.
10	Transit Insurance: Our responsibility ceases as soon as material is handed over to transporter / Postal authority / courier. No claim for loss, damage in transit or short delivery will be entertained by us. To cover all such risks the insurance of all materials in transit to be arranged by buyer. However if so desired, SABAR can arrange transit insurance at an extra cost.
